ORLANDVM de Lasso, in disciplinis musicis ita excelluisse, ut quàm plurimos, qui in illis laudem meruere, longè post se reliquerit, pares admodum paucos, superiores multò pauciores habuerit, id verò vel ipsa fateri debet invidia. Non pudet nos Ser.^{tem} V.^{am} hac cū laude parentis nostri affari, quin addere ad hanc, aliam non dubitamus, ex innumeris nempe musica cultoribus, quorum quidem notitia ad nos pervenerit, nullum extitisse, qui cantiones plures, pluribus linguis composuerit, id quod lucubrationes eius Latinè, Germanicè, Italicè, & Gallicè editæ, testatum faciunt. Quàm verò gratosus ille non solum apud Ser.^{mos} alijs contingit) protinus desiderari soleant: quare cum typographos ac bibliopolas, aliosq; Orlandina musica studiosos conqueri subinde audiuissimus, cogitatio subire nos cœpit, gratiam ab illis non mediocrem iniri, simulq; gloriæ parentis nostri consuli posse, si cantiones eius Latinas omnes (motetas vocant) collectas, emendatasq; ac multarum necdum editarum accessione, ceu nouo quasi comitatu auctiores, in lucem daremus. Quod consilium, licet magna cum ratione susceptum, diuq; cum animis nostris versatum, effectum tamen nō reddidissimus, nisi id Ser.^{ti} V.^{træ} probari, ex nobili & clarissimo viro D. Thoma Mermanno co-gnouissimus. Porro assensus huiusce fiducia, inclytum quoq; Ser.^{tis} V.^{træ} nomen in operis ipsius fronte inscribere non sumus veriti, consisi nempe ipsam æquo animo laturam, primum ut ei splendoris ac dignitatis non parum inde accedat, deinde verò, ut superciliosi aliqui musica contemptores intelligant, se graui in errore versari, dum illā aspernantur scientiam, quam optimus, & sapientissimus seculi nostri princeps MAXIMILIANVS Bauariae Dux, maiorum suorum vestigia secutus, & magnificat, & egregia liberalitate, ingentem musicorum multitudinem lautis alens stipendijs, prosequitur. This musical score is for two voices, titled "Duūm vocum." and numbered "XVII." It consists of ten staves of music. The first staff begins with a large, ornate initial "G" in a decorative frame. The notation is in a historical style, featuring a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, with some rests. The music is written in a single system, with the two voices represented by the two staves of each line. The score concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign at the end of the tenth staff. Below the tenth staff, there are three empty staves.

This page contains musical notation for two voices, labeled "Duūm vocum." and numbered "XIX." The notation is written on eleven staves. The first staff begins with a large, ornate initial "C" in a decorative frame. The music is written in a style typical of 16th-century manuscripts, using a C-clef for the first voice and an F-clef for the second voice. The notation includes various note values, rests, and accidentals (sharps and naturals). The piece concludes with a double bar line and a final cadence symbol.

The musical score is composed of ten staves. The first staff features a large, decorative initial 'L' on the left. The notation consists of diamond-shaped notes placed on the lines of a five-line staff, with stems indicating pitch and rhythm. The music is written in a style characteristic of 16th-century lute tablature. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The musical score is written for two voices, indicated by the title "Duūm vocum." and the Roman numeral "X X I.". The notation is a form of early modern musical notation, using diamond-shaped notes on a five-line staff. The first staff is decorated with a large, ornate initial "A". The music is written in a single system, with ten staves of music. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings such as "p" (piano). The score concludes with a double bar line and a final note on the tenth staff.
